CRICKET.

ST. GEORGE'S ve. NEW-YORK.

This exciting match was finished last evening, at sundown, the former Club being the victors. It was undoubtedly the best-contested match of the season, and as fire a display of cricketing as any seen on the ground for years. The play on both sides was most spirited, and elicited the plaudits of all who were there to witness it. The batting of Ireland, Lang, S. Wright, H. Wright and Lillywhite on the part of the St. George's and that of Barker, Welby, Sharpe, Hamlin and Crossley of the New York Club, was especially admired. The fielding, too, was exceed ngly fine on both sides; Gelston, H. Wright and Ireland, at "long field," and Fletcher and Lillywhite as "long stops," were all that could be desired in their respect ive places. Altogether, it was the most interesting match of the season, and a rich treat to the admirers of the game, large numbers of whom were on the ground. It will be seen by the score that the game was not in reality concluded, but according to the laws of the game the New-Yorkers lost, the match, as they failed to put their last man in when time was called The following is the score:

THE LOST PROPELLER J. N. HARRIS.

Capt. Haff the diver, visited New-London, Ct., on Tucsday. He states that the propeller lies in about ninety-six feet of water, and is heading about southwest, with all her masts gone. Her boats are lying on the deck. The vessel has about four feet heel to the starboard, the side of the cabin deck is broken from the vessel and risen three or four feet. It is the opinion of Capt. Haff that some of the bodies have excepted through the aperture (very likely those found on Long Island shore). At one time, while on the propeller's deck, Capt. H. became entangled in the rigging, but soon extricated himself. He thinks it would be very difficult to raise the propeller, and that if possible it would not justify the expense. The body of Miss Robinson he found in the companion-way, wedged in some manner, but as soon as it was detached, it rose to the top with great force, like a cerk, so great as to have carried him up, had he not disconnected himself from it. The other bodies were found closely pressed against the side of the deck. While under water they looked very natural, but immediately on coming in centact with the air they assumed a red, then black appearance. Capt. H. saw a large tumber of sharks. He thinks if he makes another exploration he shall cut away all the rigging first. Capt. Haff deserves much credit for his successful efforts, Divers, as a general thing, are not willing to go below fifty feet, at which distance it is quite dark, and pressure great. The six bodies recovered have been taken to New-London and interred in Cedar Grove Cemetery. London and interred in Cedar Grove Cemetery.

THE MACKEREL FISHERY.

Sunday was a joyful day for Gloucester, in arrivals of fishing vessels. One after another came in all day with colors flying, and with fares from 500 to 200 barrels. About $35,000 worth came in. A great many more are now due, as not near all the first vessels have yet arrived. Their stay in port is now short, as they must be back to the bay before the boisterous weather occurs, which seriously interrupts the fisheries and breaks up their voyages. The latter part of October and November the Bay of St. Lawrence is rather a dangerous and uncomfortable place, as the gales and stums are very severe and good barbors ccarce. As late as the 15th of November last year, more than 160 Gloucester vessels were in the bay, and such was the remarkable and sudden exit of the mackerel, and the bad weather, that they returned home with about 60 herrels each of poor mackerel, and thus caused the fishing season to terminate unfavorably.

THE LOSS OF THE STEAMER CLYNE THE LOIS OF THE STEAMER CLYNE

Capt. Meiklereid and the mate of the steamer Clyde arrived here yesterday morning. They report that the vessel is wrecked on Perroquet Island, one of the Mingan group, in the Straits of Belle Isle. When the Clyde went ashore the right was not dark, neither was there much fog, and the disaster is attributed, we hear, to the incorrectness of the compasses on board. But twenty minutes elapsed after the steamer struck until her stern sunk in six fathoms of water, where she lay when last seen. The cabin passengers had not time to save any of their luggage, though tome of the steerage passengers were more fortunate. The mails on board, too, were lost. We learn that Lieut. Harley. Third West India Regiment, Mr. Murray, employed in the Geological Survey of Canada, Mr. McKenzie of Montreal, and Mr. and Mrs. Bray, cabin passengers, together with all the steerage passengers, proceeded to England in the steamship Anglo-Saxon. Mrs. Warren and child of Montreal are returning to Quebec by the schooner Louis Fearier.

LOSS OF LIFE ON THE GRAND BANKS.

We learn that a vessel arrived in Plymouth yesterday, bringing tidings that two men belouging to the schooner Engineer, and an equal number attached to the schooner Seadrift, of that place, were drowned on the Banks since the arrival of those vessels there. It is supposed that the seamen drowned were visiting their acquaintances in other vessels. The cause of the death of these men was the upsetting of the dories in which they were returning to their own vessel, after having made their accustomed visit. The accident occurred on Sunday.

Dischargeld.—George W. Regers, who was arrested on Wednesday, on the complaint of Andrew Demorest, charged with stealing a gold watch, was discharged by Justice Cornwell yesterday, there being no evidence whatever against him.

OLD MAN MISSING .- An old gentleman by the name of Edward Dickinson, 57 years of age, recently left his home, at No. 281 Plymouth street, Brooklyn, to come to this city to purchase some plane-knives. The last seen of him was at the store of Mr. Herran, is Bloecker street. Mr. Dickinson was a man of very steady habits, and has been in the employ of R. L. Allen, the agricultural ware manufacturer. It is supposed by his friends that some foul play has prevented him from returning to his home.

SAD OCCURRENCE.—A twin son of Samuel Garrison, ear, aged about four years, died on Wednesday in consequence of the effects of bandanum administered to him in mistake for tincture of rhubarb. It appears that the mother was absent, having left another lady in charge of the family. The little boy sustained an injury to his foot, and a poultice and some laudanum were applied to relieve the pain. When the mother came home and saw bar child was ill, she went to the closet for the bottle of tincture, but, instead, got hold of the laudanum visit, which she was not aware was in the house, and administered a teaspoonful to the boy. Some time after she asked him to take another done, but he refused, saying it did not taste good. About half an hour clapsed, when the dreadful mistake was discovered. A physician was called in, but too late to be of any avail.

A physician was celled in, but too late to be of any avail.

THE POLICE TELEGRAPH.—Arrangements are now making to introduce the Police Writing Telegasph into this city, to take piace of the old system now in use Intelligible accounts can thereby be transmitted from one Station-House to the other. The wires are also to be extended to the Station-Houses in the Eastern District and Eight and Ninth Wards, which are now out of the range of telegraphic communication, and, eventually, it is expected that the wires will be extended to New York by way of Astoria. The Station-Houses are all to be larnished with the new apparatus, and new books of questions and suswers will also be prepared.

SUPPOSED FOUL PLAY.—A man, apparently a German, was found in a field near the residence of James De Nyse, at Bay Ridge, yesterday merning about daylight. He was badly beaten, and had probably sustained a fracture of the shall. He could not be understood by those who found him; but, from his gestures, it was found that he had lived in Gowanna and was on his way to Fort Hamilton. A wheelbarrow, containing a value, and come other articles were found a distance of about three hundred yards from the place on the road. It is supposed that he had been beaten and robbed the night previous, and thrown into the field. He was taken to the County Hospital.

COMMITTED.—Coroner See'll proceeded on Wednesday to take the voluntary examination of James Gallaghe and Pat Kelly, preparatory to commitment for the action of the Grand Jucy. Gallagher stands charged with causing the death of Hugh Kelly on the moraint of the 30th of August, by stabbing him with a knife, and Pat Kelly with assisting in the act. Gallagher said be used the knife, but did not know on whom, and that he did it in self-defense. Pat Kelly said he was not guilty. Their case has been presented to the Grand Jury for their action.

NEW-JERSEY ITEMS.

Row at WEEHAWKEN, NEW-JERSEY .- On Monday afterroon two volunteer target companies from this city were on an excursion to Weehawken, New-Jersey, for the purpose of enjoying a day's amusement. One company composed of lads, varying in ages from 15 to 20 years, went to Pollock's Pavillion, where they were to dine, and thence to the target ground, a short distance from the hotel.

The other company was composed principally of men who made their head quarters at another hotel, epposite Pollock's Pavilion, called Wilson's Hotel. During the afternoon a number of the young men attached to the first named company went over to attached to the first named company went over to Wilson's Hotel, and while there a dispute arose between two members of each of the above companies, when one of them took up a chair and broke iflover the head of his opponent. As soon as the man that was struck got on his feet he rallied and, taking up a musket, dealt his opponent a viclent blow on the head. This act caused a general melee and at one time the consequences threatened to be rather serious, as the members of the company of young men at Pollock's fired a number of shots at Wilson's Hotel, breaking the windows in the house and bottles in the bar; fortua number of shots at Wilson's Hotel, breaking the windows in the house and bottles in the bar; fortunately, no person was shot. AN OUTRAGE.-Four young women, accompanie by three leds, were returning on foot to Jersey City from the City of Hudson, where they had atter party on Wednesday night, at a late hour, when they were attacked by two ruffians, who attempted to com mit an indecent assault upon them. The men knocked one of the women down; but they resisted so stoutly, and cried for help so loudly, that the villains were obliged to run away without accomplishing their purpose. Assistance soon came, and the women were accompanied to their homes. One of them had the marks of fingers upon her throat yesterday, so severely had she been grasped. FINED FOR SELLING LIQUOR. - Pricick Toner was tried before Recorder Bedford, yesterday, in Mosnouth County Court.—The trial of Mrs. Elizabeth Bennett, on the charge of murdering her chi'd, by giving it laudanum, was commenced on Wednesday, in the Monmouth County Court of Oyer and Terminer. The prisoner was so much affected that during the examination of Jos. W. Borden, esq. (one of the witnesses), she fainted, and had to be removed from the room.
